Friday 3rd February 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

Firstly, thank you for all the parental support and understanding shown this week towards our teaching team. I know this has been very much appreciated by the all staff across the school.

Class 4 had a workshop delivered by the NSPCC at the start of this week - they learnt lots of information about the rights of children and how they can SPEAK OUT and STAY SAFE.

Dates for the diary: NSPCC Online Safety webinars

The NSPCC will be providing free, online safety webinars for parents and carers in February 2023.

- 7th February: 4pm to 5pm
- 13th February: 7pm to 8pm
- 22nd February: 5pm to 6pm
- 28th February: 7pm to 8pm

The sessions will be approximately 1 hour long and will provide you with insights about how young children may be using the internet, the associated risks and how to manage these as parents. Each session will also cover different topics, ranging from social media and gaming to online friendships and cyber bullying.

The online world is an amazing place where kids play, learn, create and connect. But every day this world is growing and changing, which can make it feel overwhelming. That's where these workshops come in. The NSPCC will be delivering free, virtual online safety webinars that cover:

- What children are doing online
- Online safety concerns
- What the risks are for young people in terms of what they see, do and who they meet online

Additionally, each session will explore different topics:

During the sessions, you will be introduced to some ways to manage these risks, as well as helpful sources of support and advice.
